(I suppose we will see you when you come)

Trenton Henry Co. (Ill.) August 7. 1843

Dear Uncle James:—

I was much pleased to day to receive a line of communication from you—I must confess that I am guilty of the sin of ingratutude— I will not apologize, but will ask your pardon, it was not out of respect, for it is, unbounded and all most without a parallel. When I came home from Ohio there was such a concatenation of circumstance, that operated on my mind that it was neglected, until I was ashamed, the note I came home I was blessed with the birth of a daughter, I was prevented by sickness from going up in the Purchase, to make you a claim Land is very cheap and the best in the world, and amongst scarce we have had to pass through much disappointment since I saw you, and have called to mourn over the sudden death of our Brother and blinded in our expectations and desires— But all things go to teach us the inconstancy of the things of this life. For a time I may and get very much elevated from God, thinking about getting rich, but the happiness I have found does not consist of the abundance, of the things of this life but in, gentleness, meekness, faith, hope, charity, brotherly kindness, &c. Uncle, you, and no think we have forgotten you, and for illustration I will ~~give you a~~ circumstance, I went to bed as usual, but could not go to sleep, and ⁱⁿ cogitating upon various subjects, I happened to fall on that old bair selling up in the cliffs in the spring of the year, with the leaves all round it, waking up and looking very nicely, that you portrayed a picture your strong Discription powers, I saw the old bair as much as at as life, and had to laugh out heartily so still, we have a great respect for our old Uncle would and be gratified in the highest, to hear from you - and driven into paroxysms of ecstacy to be permitted the privilege of seeing you, - though you write that you will be out, this fall I am very sceptical, I should be gratified to see I I will not raise the price too high for fear of a collapse, if you do not come send them Boyes Jim & Chas, this is a good country to sell goods they never will be shifty until they can learn to "deal barke with their teeth" in an old country where children groan in volupition and wether they are never thrown on their own resources this would be a fine collage for them. To live in a barke house to ~~live on~~ ^{eat} Leim barke, sleep on a hair skin and rock your children in horse troft

I started and took a trip up the Missouri river in June, I staid a Sunday in St Louis, and attended lecture on devision Mr Boyes, Laberd hard to prove that it was not a secession from the Methodist Church but from the General Conference, and went on relieving the inconsistent course you had taken as an inflammatory Abolition, and ^{for Bishop} stated that you voted the year before for Dr Miners, ~~that~~ had since been Abolitionist. All the delegates down river in giving ~~in~~ ^{giving} their licence, and a legalization, this hall damning and seven daring slave Church also stocracy, Bishop Andrew supposes himself the Arch Bishop of Contibary, If I was a big man I would take down on them like a tumbling Arilanche or a bursting volcano Mr Wesley Browning followed in the evening. Oh! Oh! the misrepresentation "Abolition" Abolition! Disgusting, I started and went off hundred miles, I slept 3 days at the mouth of Cav River; got amongst the Minnedoles, a good many recollections one I called on William Walker he did not recognize me at the moment, but on reflection, knew all about me. Miss Walker told me. If I ever can you to say to you for her since the death of her son James B. Walker her mind is wandering from the world. and would meet you in heaven. I treated with great respect, Briggs looked at me a long time then he remember me. I did not like the country on the Missouri, too much Higordiggy and where that is, you see the dilapidations effects accruing I have given you a considerable lecture on the Church John P. Lindley has moved his family down from Galena has been gone 8 weeks peddling Drugs & medicine for a house in Galena I was in Galena around a crowd I saw an old cypress me and came and me if my name was Lindley I told him it was, he said I know you by your Uncle James & never seen me before me in the world. it was old Dr Johnston of Kenia Ohio John Has 4 children 3 boys one girl, one ^{takes after} daddy Straine, one Sam Lindley and a Sharpe. Elizabeth lives in town, with has 3 children one boy 2 girls she enjoys very fine health, and wishes to be remembered by you. and she says that she will never forget you, I have a girl of the Angles Section Breed, James can find good location to practice medicine, in Iowa - If you come this fall bring the history of the Winnetoes with you, that one you gave me, I took with my goats on the river coming out, I wish you would find out the price of sheep around Leaman town, so you can let me know, I have some notion of going to raise wool, you can average a dollar a head on the sheep on the woolly, if I had a thousand head I could make a thousand dollars a year, and pay the expense of the wool to Boston, I have filled up my paper and have not said as much as I wanted to you must excuse the imperfections in this letter for my pen is a month old, and I won't look over my letter for fear I see so many errors that I will not send it
